Registration	You register for activities through stads selvbetjening during the announced registration period, which you can see on the Study administration homepage. When registering for courses, please be aware of the potential conflicts and overlaps between course and exam time and dates. The planning of course activities at Roskilde University is based on the recommended study programmes, which should not overlap. However, if you choose optional courses and/or study plans that goes beyond the recommended study programmes, an overlap of lectures or exam dates may occur depending on which courses you choose. In case of too few registrations, the course will be cancelled.
Detailed description of content	This course introduces students to new and emerging global actors who currently are reshaping wider globalization processes. This will involve an analysis of various forms of social action, creative forms of activism as well as localized resistance movements.. The course starts by introducing conceptual approaches “social action”, “social actor” and “social change”. We will then study several important emerging actors and analyse both their motivations and strategies for social action. Tentative Course Schedule: Session 1: Introduction - The “nature” of Social Action Session 2: Whistle-blowers Session 3: Creative Activism and Tricksters Session 4: Elite Politics Session 5: Business and Celebrities as Development Actors Session 6: Populist movements Session 7: Indigenous Solidarity Movements Session 8: Religious Leaders Session 9: Social Media Influencers Session 10: Climate Change Activism Session 11: Shadow Actors, Secret Societies and Conspiracies Session 12: Black Lives Matter Session 13: Conclusion – Becoming a social actor The portfolio examination is in two parts: 1. Assignment written during the course. 2. 7-day written assignment. See study.ruc.dk for updated information on deadlines and exam format. The first part of the examination is an answer to the question that will be handed out at the start of the course (Lecture 1) and that students can work on throughout the course period. The assignment should be around 14,000 characters, including spaces (corresponding to five standard pages). The students are given 7 days to write the second part of the examination. The assignment is set on 7/6/2021. A rough indication of the exam question will be given at the date of the final course
