internship position and the practical matters associated with the internship.

The project-oriented internship must be pre-approved by the board of studies before it is started. The intern's main tasks must be described, and they must lie within the subject area of the programme.

Detailed description of content	The learning in the internship is achieved via a mix of practical tasks, reflections on the intersection between theory and practices and via the independent preparation of the internship project. The preparation of the internship project takes place under the supervision of an internship supervisor.
Course material and Reading list	Determined individually in collaboration between student and supervisor.
Overall plan and expected work effort	The internship must be pre-approved by the Board of Studies before it is started. It is expected that the work efforts of the semester are distributed at $\frac{3}{4}$ of the time at the internship and $\frac{1}{4}$ at the university (equivalent to approx. 540-600 hours at the place of internship and approx. 200 hours at the university). The principal activities of the intern must be described and be within the scope of the subject area of Public Administration. Obligations in the course of the internship. In addition to the work at the internship host, the student has a number of obligations and work assignments relative to the university. On-going obligations encourage reflections on the meeting between theory, method, professional tools and practice, and the contribution of the internship to the student's competence development. The final internship project enables the student to deal with a self-selected theme related to the internship. On-going obligations: Submission of a halfway report before the seventh week of the commencement of the internship. The halfway report must include: Reflections on the internship consisting of a one-page description of the work/activities of the internship and key research questions addressed by these as well as the daily tasks of the student in the organisation and one page of reflection on which professional theories and methodologies that have been particularly relevant to the work done so far at the intern host.

Proposal for the internship project subject area and problem formulation (max. 4,800 characters including spaces). 2 pages) Draft internship project structure (theory, method, empirical data, analysis)

Proposal for a minimum of 650 pages of the internship project's total literature of 1,300 pages.

Submission of draft project report before the 13th week of the internship. The draft must be at least 24,000 characters including spaces. The size specifications include the title page, table of contents, bibliography, figures, and other illustrations, but does not include any potential appendixes or annexes. Assignments that do not comply with the size specification will not be assessed and one exam attempt will have been used. They must at least be 24,000 keystrokes in length, equal to 10 standard pages. The size specification is based on 2,400 keystrokes, including spaces, per page. The size specification includes the cover page, table of contents and literature, but excluding any Annexes.
